for whatever a man sows, that he will In spiritual terms, we can determine what also reap. For he who sows to his flesh kind of fruit we will receive. If we spend will of the flesh reap corruption, but he our lives pursuing pleasure, popularity, or who sows to the Spirit will of the Spirit other earthly rewards, we only will reap these kinds of returns. As a result, we may reap everlasting life - Gal 6:7-8

The truth is so simple we can take it for not receive spiritual riches.

granted: We always reap what we sow. God's blessings, both in this life and in the Farmers never would argue this fact. They life to come, are for those who sow to the know that if they want corn, they must Spirit. These are people who first seek His plant seeds of corn. If they want wheat, Kingdom. They separate themselves from the corruption in this world. They fill their they need to plant seeds of wheat. And so minds with His Word and are consumed on. They also know they will not reap any with a desire to please Him.

Paul wrote that this same principle If you want to reap spiritual riches, seek applies to every phase of life. Our to sow in the Spirit. Then, sow abundantly harvests depend on what we sow. This into His Kingdom so that you may be means that what we receive in our lives blessed with a bountiful harvest.

(our harvest) depends on what we do or What seeds are you sowing today?

TODAY'S WORSHIP SONG

What a Friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Everything to God in prayer!
O what peace we often forfeit,
O what needless pain we bear,
All because we do not carry
Everything to God in prayer!

Have we trials and temptations?
Is there trouble anywhere?
We should never be discouraged,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.
Can we find a friend so faithful
Who will all our sorrows share?
Jesus knows our every weakness,
Take it to the Lord in prayer.

Are we weak and heavy-laden,
Cumbered with a load of care?
Precious Savior, still our refuge—
Take it to the Lord in prayer;
Do thy friends despise, forsake thee?
Take it to the Lord in prayer;
In His arms He'll take and shield thee,
Thou wilt find a solace there.

SUNDAY CLASS STUDY

THE ASSAULT ON WORSHIP - 2

Topic: What true Worship possess

Text: John 4:23-24

Introduction: Last week, we studied that one of the primary objectives of worship change agents is to renovate and restructure the Church's worship practices to suit the pleasure of their members, and their ultimate goal is numbers - nothing to do with the salvation of souls. The four types of Worship are explained in detail. Today, we will understand what true Worship possesses.

1. True Worship possesses the right audience with proper focus (God) - According to the Scriptures, to have true Worship, worshippers must have proper focus, that is, God. Unfortunately, today, the Church is full of people and leader who believe that morals and righteousness is not part of Christian living. Because they do not know God and the Scriptures, they act and preach that prostitution, riot living, and shameless acts are not a hindrance to gaining heaven. However, the fact remains that the Word of God cannot be moved, changed, edited, erased, or added to.

2. True Worship possesses the right audience with proper attitude (in Spirit) - Worshipping in Spirit takes real effort.

Unfortunately, the current climate in the Church tends to treat Worship as a time of entertaining the worshipper and catering to the worshiper's wants. As a result, many worshippers have lost the deep, reverent mind set to please God and not self. This lax attitude is especially evident in the change that has come over many congregations with regard to dressing to the Church, music played in Worship services, and the quality of sermons.

3. True Worship possesses the right audience with proper actions (in truth) - The current assault on Worship includes an attempt to dodge the clear meaning of the expression "in truth." Some falsely say that "in truth" is simply a Hebraism, meaning to worship sincerely and devotedly. However, worshipping God "in truth" is equivalent to "doing truth," which entails "deeds" or external actions which God prescribes. Therefore, you cannot claim to worship God "in truth" without living by the truth code - the Word of God.

Note: Though it is a good thing to help your friends, neighbors, and relatives when they are in problem. However, that it is not helpful to us to give any of our numbers to them when they have issues. It will be beneficial to them if you rather introduce our ministry to them long before the days of evil so that they will not be looking for any fire-brigade approach during emergency. Thanks.

Devotion TODAY With Pastor Christie

Monday's Path: Gal. 1:16 to reveal His Son in me, that I might preach Him among the Gentiles, I did not immediately confer with flesh and blood, Pathway: The Bible urges us to realize how easy it can be to fall into ruts. We need time alone with God—time for prayer, study, reflection, and renewal. Without these times, we can become cold and stale. God has prepared abundant blessings for you. There are life-changing revelations and deeper insights yet to be discovered. Spend quality time alone with Him, withdrawn from the world.

*O Lord, I seek You with my whole heart. Help me hear from You in Jesus' name. PRAY!

Tuesday's Path: Gal. 2:1 Then after fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and also took Titus with me.

Pathway: The Bible is filled with the fruit of Paul's ministry—his sermons and letters, his travels, and the churches he founded. But we must not forget the years he spent waiting when it might have seemed he wasn't doing anything. That means waiting at this junction, do not give up hope. Instead, remain faithful.

*O Lord, I believe You have a plan for my life, and You will guide me in Jesus' name. PRAY!

Wednesday's Path: Gal. 2:20 I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me.

Pathway: Jesus still saves souls and changes lives. Humble yourself before Him! In your heart, kneel at the cross where He died for you. Accept His salvation, forgiveness, and healing. Dedicate your life to bringing salvation to lost souls around the world.

*O Lord, Thank You for saving me. I worship You in Jesus' name. PRAY!

Thursday's Path: Gal. 3:28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

Pathway: God loves everyone and wants everyone to be saved. Jesus died to save people of all races. Remember that everyone needs the Gospel—every race, every country. Ask God to give you a hunger to share the Gospel. Be an ambassador for truth.

*O Lord, give me a burden for souls. Let me impact lives with the Gospel in Jesus' name. PRAY!

Friday's Path: Gal. 4:26 but the Jerusalem above is free, which is the mother of us all.

Pathway: Allegories are like word paintings, ways to use symbols to portray truths that can be hard to define. This Word reminds us that there are many levels within God's Word. Truths that may be apparent on the surface also can reveal deeper things through study, prayer, and revelation. As you read the Bible, approach the Word carefully and reverently. Be careful not to interject your own interpretations of the text.

*O Lord, open my eyes to deeper truths in Your Word in Jesus' name. PRAY!

Saturday's Path: Gal. 5:1 Stand fast therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with a yoke of bondage.

Pathway: Many believers still seem burdened and fail to experience the joy of the Lord. But, as Oswald Smith realized, our souls can be set free in Jesus. Are you burdened? Do you have a heavy heart? Turn to Him today. Trust in Him. Let Him set your soul free!

*O Lord, Thank You for taking away my burdens in Jesus' name.
